

AAMI – 129A Policies Updated June 11. 2024

129-A 6430 RULES FOR MAINTENANCE OF PUBLIC ORDER

The Trustees of American Academy McAllister Institute (AAMI) hereby adopt the following rules for the maintenance of public order on campus and other locations used for educational purposes and a program for the enforcement of these rules, and do hereby authorize the President of AAMI be on AAMI premises. A trespasser has no privilege of any kind to be on AAMI property but is nevertheless subject to these regulations governing the maintenance of order.

Any authorized member of the AAMI community, after properly identifying himself or herself, provided by the largest faculty organization on campus; and one-third selected by the President. At least half of the Committee members must be female.

2. The President may select additional members of the committee at his/her discretion.
3. Committee members serve at the pleasure of the President. The President may replace members at his/her/their discretion.

Responsibilities of the Committee

The Committee will meet as needed, but no less often than once per academic year. The Committee will review current campus security policies and procedures, and make recommendations for their improvement. It shall specifically review current policies and procedures for:

1. Educating the AAMI community about sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking prevention, applicable laws, ordinances and regulations, and the penalties for commission of those offenses pursuant to New York State Education Law §6432;
2. Educating the AAMI community about personal safety and crime prevention;
3. Reporting of sexual assaults and dealing with sexual assault victims during an investigation;
4. Referring complaints to appropriate authorities where necessary;
5. Counseling crime victims;
6. Responding to inquiries from concerned persons.

Reporting

The Committee will submit a written report to the President at least once each academic year. The

129-A 6432 SEXUAL ASSAULT, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND

STALKING

Responding officers or AAMI officials will determine if the circumstances require immediate intervention in order to prevent further injury to victims or to insure the apprehension of offenders.

If the offender(s) are no longer on campus and the immediate threat has ended, officers or AAMI officials will take the appropriate measures to provide support to victims and implement established protocols for criminal investigations.

If it is determined that the elements of the offence are consistent with any Violent Felony Crime as defined under New York State Law, the Administration will contact the NYPD pursuant to the joint Memorandum of Understanding in order to transfer responsibility for the investigation.

The Administration will assist the NYPD in any manner requested until the completion of the investigation.

129-A 6436 BIAS RELATED CRIME

AAMI shall inform incoming students about bias related crime prevention measures, in order to disseminate information about bias related crime, promote discussion, encourage reporting of incidents of bias related crime, and facilitate prevention of such incidents. Educational and informational programs should include, but not be limited to, the following subjects:

Applicable laws, ordinances, and regulations on bias related crime, including the provisions and coverage of the hate crimes act of 2000 (Article 485 of the Penal Law).

Penalties under applicable law for commission of bias related crimes.

Procedures in effect at AAMI for dealing with bias related crime.

Availability of counseling and other support services for the victims of bias related crime.

The nature of and common circumstances relating to bias related crime on college campuses; and

The methods AAMI employs to advise and to update students about safety and security procedures.
